

Art classes through Hot Potato Art Studio are so much fun! We want to make sure that everyone who participates has the best experience possible. In order to do that, please make sure that your child wants to participate and please be aware of our policies and expectations.

If you have any questions please reach out to emily@hotpotatoartstudio.com.

Studio Guidelines and Policies

I understand that my child's enrollment in Hot Potato Art Studio is subject to the policies and procedures outlined by the studio. I agree to provide accurate and up-to-date information during the registration process. I understand the studio's policies regarding make-ups, refunds, and cancellations.

I acknowledge that my child is expected to adhere to a code of conduct while attending classes. This includes being respectful and kind to the instructors, fellow students, the materials, and the studio environment. Your child will be made aware of the class expectations at the beginning of the lesson. We use encouragement and positive redirection, but if your child is not meeting behavior expectations we reserve the right to contact you.

You give your child permission to participate in art lessons at Hot Potato Art Studio. You are aware that art classes use a variety of materials including paint, scissors, and hot glue. You release and hold Hot Potato Art Studio harmless from any and all liability that may arise in connection with the studio's art programs.

Refunds and Class Transfers

Full refunds are available if the cancellation is made at least 72 hours before the start of the class. A partial refund, within 72 hours, is subject to a 50% cancellation fee, as supplies have already been purchased. Refunds are not offered for no-shows, cancellations within 24 hours, or for students who do not adhere to an appropriate code of conduct.

I understand that these photographs and/or video recordings may be used on Hot Potato Art Studio's website, social media platforms, and/or promotional materials. I understand that my child will not receive any compensation for the use of these photographs and/or video recordings. I release and discharge Hot Potato Art Studio
